It's been a cold and snowy start to Spring so far but hopefully we start to see more sunshine and blue skies as we edge our way further into the Spring term. There is much to look forward to over the next few weeks and in the run up to the Easter break and we will continue to keep you updated with all the goings-on here in school. Have a lovely weekend!

For those not on Twitter, and also just because we want to shout it again, here is our wonderful school family letting the world know that Ofsted had judged that we continue to be OUTSTANDING!

British Science Week:

Next week is British Science Week 2023 and Wimboldsley joins forces to honour the year's topic of 'connections'. For the week, teachers are working hard to prepare some extra exciting science 'connections' lessons for all pupils. For those children who continue to use scientific vocabulary during the week, raffle tickets will be awarded; a junior and infant scientific prize will be presented to our raffle winners in assembly on Friday.

Fun in the Snow

Our EYFS children made the most of the little snow left by the time the arrived in school this morning!

Don't forget Comic Relief FRIDAY 17th MARCH
For a £1 come to school in Non-uniform with WILD HAIR - Be as creative or as wild as you can!

Parental consultations

Please ensure you have your slot booked via school spider for our parental consultations on Tuesday 21st and Wednesday 22nd March. It is a great opportunity to speak with your child's class teacher and have a glimpse into your child/rens learning journey so far this academic year.

Strike action

As per the letter sent out earlier this week, all classes will be open as usual on Wednesday 15th and Thursday 16th March.

Oak class assembly - Thursday 16th March @ 2.30pm. We look forward to seeing you then.
