

THE WIMBOLDSLEY WEEKLY

1st December 2023

@WimboldsleyCPS

Another week down and another week ahead to look forward to! Thank you to those of you who were able to attend our parent consultations this Monday. It was, as always, a lovely opportunity for teachers to catch up with you regarding your child/ren and also just a nice opportunity to have you here in school to say hello and to 'catch up!' We have the Christmas Fayre to look forward to coming up soon too, so it will be lovely to see many of you all again then. We hope you can make it!

It's been a joy to see less wind and rain this week but this has been replaced by a lot of frost so it is really starting to feel wintery here now. The vast majority of pupils have come to school prepared for this weather though and look like they are wrapped up nice and warm. Gloves, scarves and hats are all welcomed to help keep nice and toasty when outside but we do encourage these to be labelled or have names written inside just in case they decide to go for a wander at any point during the day.

I am delighted to announce that my up and coming maternity leave and absence as Headteacher is going to be overseen by Vicki Hughes.

Vicki is currently Deputy Headteacher at Wolverham Primary School (a school within Concordia Multi Academy Trust) and has a wealth of experience, including taking on an Acting Head role for her current school, prior to doing so here. With the support of the wider Trust and all of the wonderful staff here in school, I have great faith that I am leaving with everything in extremely safe hands. Vicki has already begun visiting Wimboldsley as part of a transition and handover in advance of my maternity leave and has met with myself, Chair of our Local Academy Board (Jody Darlington) as well as senior leaders here and staff alike. She will continue to do so in the run up to the Christmas break and I know that you will all make her feel welcome and a part of our Wimboldsley family where we will make sure she has the opportunity to be a visible face for you all. Mrs Hughes is excited and has a lot to look forward to. I feel very honoured to be able to hand over the reins of our lovely school and wider school community to her, during this time.

Parent Local Academy Board

A message should have gone out to you today via school spider with an attachment for those of you who want to be considered for the current Parent Local Academy Board member. The deadline for submitting applications will be Friday 8th December 2023. I will keep you updated regarding the process and look forward to hopefully welcoming another great addition to our schools Local Academy Board.
