@WimboldsleyCPS

What a fantastic start to the new year it's been! I'm thrilled to be stepping into the role of acting head while covering Mrs Jones' maternity leave and the warm welcome I've received from everyone here has been heartwarming. This week, I've had the pleasure of getting to know our incredible bunch of pupils; what a joy they are a joy to be around! Their hardworking attitudes, beautiful manners, and infectious enthusiasm have left me thoroughly impressed. It's clear that Wimboldsley is a very special place filled with remarkable individuals. I'll be around every Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, so please don't hesitate to stop by and say hello. I'm looking forward to meeting more of you in the coming weeks and being part of this wonderful community.

Friday 2nd February

Pay £1.00 (donated to the NSPCC) to come into school wearing number-themed clothes and spend the day completing all sorts of maths-related activities.

Any parents or carers are welcome to drop-in from 2:30pm, when they can complete various number tasks with their children.

SEN COFFEE & CATCH-UP

January theme: Information and Advice
Helen from CEIAS will be joining with lots of information about their service

No appointment necessary, an opportunity for an informal chat with other parents & carers and our school SENCO.

Tuesday 16th January, 2:45pm
