Class News:

The children have once again impressed in the classroom this week and they continue to work hard.

 In our Pathways to Write sessions, we have used initial sounds to create a packing list for Tom and Penguin before they set sail to The South Pole.

In Maths this week we have concentrated on numbers upto five & had a go at subitising to quickly recognise quantities without counting.

We explored the world around us by looking for signs of seasonal change and talking about what happens to trees in autumn. This resulted in some super artwork.
